Cave de Turckheim Tradition Pinot Gris, AOP Alsace 2022

FAL4402022

Cave de Turckheim

— Alsace, France

An lovely, light expression of a classic Alsatian varietal

Production

Produced traditionally by head winemaker Michel Lihrmann. Grapes are selected from vineyards with diverse soils - limestone, granite, gravel, marl and sandstone - which impart different characters and styles to the overall blend, and harvested by hand and machine, depending on site. Pneumatic pressing, temperature controlled fermentation, no fining and light filtration before bottling - all to preserve the fruit and aromatics.

Tasting note

Turckheim's Tradition range are benchmarks for the classic Alsace varieties. The Pinot Gris has lovely ripe pear on the nose and a medium bodied, just off-dry palate. Bright and lovely, with a typically Turckheim finish - fresh and well-balanced.

Food Match

Meaty white fish such as monkfish, salmon or smoked trout, spicy Thai food.
