— Douro, Portugal

Andresen produced its first White Port with an age statement (a 10 year old White) in 2007.

Production

White port is made from indigenous white grape varieties. Fermentation is topped with the addition of neutral grape spirit.A blend of vintages, the '10 year' statement represents the average age of the wines that have made up this Port.

Tasting note

Bright aromas of baked apple and a hint of caramel - on the palate these are balanced with honeyed, floral and gently nutty notes. Bright acidity carries through on the long finish.
