Pablo Y Walter Malbec, Valle de Uco (25cl can) 2024

ARB006V12024

Azul Y Blanco

— Mendoza, Argentina

A celebration of Mendoza - the colour, culture and flavour in a can! It's the lovechild of Argentinean winemaker Walter Bressia and Boutinot winemaker Guillaume Letang.

Production

Produced from 25 year old vines in the Uco Valley, close to Walter's bodega in the rain-shadow of the Cordon del Plata. The unwooded Malbec is vinified in stainless steel to preserve the freshness and brightness of the fruit. Walter bought three spankingly new 25000-litre steel tanks specifically for this project and subsequently somehow crow-barred them into his small family bodega.

Tasting note

A really pure expression of Malbec, deep red almost purple in colour and wonderfully aromatic with lifted violet, red currant and cassis notes. Muy, muy fantasticó – richly bloody, vibrant, Latin and velveteen.

Food Match

A juicy steak, churrasco de chorizo marinated with garlic, parsley and olive oil, grilled vegetables with chimichurri sauce. Remeber to keep it chilled.
