Pierre Chainier Pinot Noir, Vin de France 2024

FPC9592024

Pierre Chainier

— Loire, France

Perfect by-the-glass Pinot Noir: full of varietal character at a keen price.

Production

Produced by Pierre Chainier Ets who own the largest vineyard holdings in Touraine. Pinot Noir grapes grown mainly on limestone soils in the cooler area to the east of Touraine bring good varietal characteristics are blended with grapes sourced from the warmer south of France to add weight and richness. Gentle oak treament gives a smooth character to the wine.

Tasting note

Bright red berries on the nose, and bursting with crunchy juicy, berry fruit flavours with a touch of dry, oak influence. Well-balanced with a lightly grippy, fresh finish.

Food Match

Great on its own or with charcuterie, paté and goats cheese.
