Bononia Estate Koshava Chardonnay, PGI Danube Plain 2024

BBE0012024

Bononia Estate

— Danubian Plain, Bulgaria

Characterful good value Chardonnay.

Production

Vineyards are located in North West Bulgaria, right on the shore of the Danube River where they enjoy a continental climate at 35-50m altitude and benefit from the influence of the river. The wine spends one month in French oak barrels, more to soften the edges than to impart flavour. Chardonnay grapes are carefully selected, hand-picked and whole bunch pressed. Fermentation and maceration take place in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature.

Tasting note

A full and flavoursome Chardonnay with a medium body and notes of ripe peach, apricot and the vaguest hint of tarragon. More stone fruit on the palate alongside honeydew melon and a rich mouth-filling texture. More akin to a new world Chardonnay than one from Europe.

Food Match

Great with creamy pasta dishes, seafood and soft cheeses.
