Grande Courtade Alvarinho, IGP Pays d'Oc [Organic] 2024

FFG0082024

Famille Fabre

— Languedoc, France

Originally planted as an experiment to see if climate change had produced more favourable conditions for certain varieties. The result was a beautifully wine perfect for the summer months.

Production

Grapes grown on a combinationm of limestone and marl. Harvested at night, fermented in stainless steel with daily lees stirring.

Tasting note

Aromatic and reminiscent of fresh cut peaches, with a subtle varietal minerality and a lovely bright, breezy freshness.

Food Match

Summer nights and BBQs
