UPI0152023

Pisano Family Wines

— Progeso,

Made 'à la Uruguaya' with the world in mind. Intense and complex flavours result from the slow ripening process possible in the climate of the southern Uruguayan coastal region.

Production

Grown on the Clay- Calcareous soils of Progreso, this 100% Tannat is aged for 5 to 6 months in French oak barrels.

Tasting note

Compôte, brambles, chocolate and a whiff of tobacco over a fresh palate of blackberries, raspberries, blueberries, and coffee. Excellent balance between acidity, fruit, and ripe tannins.

Food Match

Would pair with Uruguayan-style Creole beef asado. Meat stews, Uruguayan-style Creole stew. Strong cheeses, prosciutto and various cured meats.
