Kovács Nimród Winery

— Eger, Hungary

Kékfrankos thrives in Hungary, especially in the Eger region. ,This single vineyard wine has lots of juicy red fruit and is given complexity from 17 months in oak. Owner, Kovács Nimród, loves jazz and this wine is named after his hankering towards the Blues.

Production

This wine is made from grapes exclusively selected from the Nagyfai and Nyilasmár Monopole terroirs. The wine undergoes a wild yeast fermentation before being aged in 225 liter barrique barrels for 17 months: 44% hungarian, 37% french and 19% american new and second-, third filled barrels. Production is 3800 bottles only.

Tasting note

This Kékfrankos shows a deep ruby colour. Aromas of blueberries, red currant and hints of tobacco. The medium bodied palate hhas deliciously refreshing acidity with lots of juicy red fruit character and a hint of salinity on the finish.

Food Match

Pairs well with cheese, pork, lamb, and sauces made of forest fruits.
